

How many homes for social rent is Riverside Scotland planning to build in the next 5 years?

Our Corporate Plan 2020-2023 includes 300 new build properties over the lifetime of the plan. In terms of beyond 2023, this will not be decided until the next corporate plan is written therefore, in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, we must advise that information relating to how many homes for social rent are forecast to be built beyond 2023 is not held.

How many homes for affordable rent (defined as rents at 80% market rate) is Riverside Scotland planning to build in the next 5 years?

The 300 new build properties included within our Corporate Plan 2020-2023 would all be for affordable rent. In keeping with the question above, information beyond 2023 is not held.

In respect of your two following questions:

What proportion is this of the homes for social rent that Riverside Housing Group as a whole plan to build in the UK over the next 5 years?

What proportion is this of the home for affordable rent (defined as rents at 80% market rate) that Riverside Housing Group as a whole plan to build in the UK over the next 5 years?

To provide you with this would in turn disclose information relating directly to TRGL as a whole and therefore would not fall within the scope of The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002. Although regrettably we are unable to provide you with any information concerning TRGL as a whole, similarly anything beyond the year 2023 is unlikely to be held given these decisions around the next Corporate Plan will not have been made as of yet. May we helpfully suggest visiting TRGL's website where information is actively published regarding their plans and strategies which may provide you with more of an insight into the questions you have.
